Committee of the Whole and Special Council Meeting

PROPOSED MOORING BYLAW FOR LAGOON CITY

Council passed to draft a bylaw that would regulate the mooring of boats in Lagoon City. The proposed bylaw would repeal bylaws 2019.85 and 2019.86 and stipulate the following:

- No mooring a boat or vessel perpendicular to the shorewall;
- No rafting or mooring a boat with another boat already moored to a shorewall;
- No mooring in the navigational channel except in the case of an emergency or special event. With a special event, permission must be granted through the Township of Ramara prior to the event

The bylaw will be presented at the next Council meeting scheduled for Monday, October 25th, at 7:00 p.m.

Next COW meeting is on October 18, 2021 at 9:30 a.m.

ZONING BYLAW AMENDMENT (Z-1/20)

Council passed a bylaw to amend the Zoning Bylaw, No. 2005.85, to amend the current zoning of Mineral Aggregate Extraction Exception Nine (MAE-9), which has extraction limit to 20,000 tones, to Mineral Aggregate Extraction (MAE) that has no extraction limits. The increased tonnage will apply to lands located on Lots 14, 15 and 16, Concessions E & F.

Please note that the public meeting for this Zoning Bylaw Amendment went to the April 12, 2021, Council meeting. The public can find the agenda and minutes for that meeting on our Township website and a recording of the meeting can be found on the Township of Ramara's YouTube channel.

RAMARA COUNCIL AND COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Over the past two months, the Township adopted a hybrid model format for council and committee meetings that provide council members, staff, consultants and the public the ability to engage electronically and in person. Residents can watch the meetings online by visiting our YouTube channel or accessing the video on the agenda. Staff have also added timestamps to the various areas of the agenda, so residents can jump ahead to the section of the agenda they want to listen to.

SIMCOE COUNTY NEW CART PROGRAM

Hold's more waste.
Takes up less space.

On November 1, the County of Simcoe is rolling out an automated cart collection system to help with the continuity of collection service and help reduce potential wide spread collection impacts. Residents of Ramara will continue to have garbage pick up on Tuesdays and should expect to see their carts over the next month if they have not received them already. Residents can learn more about the program by visiting the County of Simcoe's Cart Collection website. Feedback can be provided to the County at info@simcoe.ca or by calling 705-726-9300.

HOLIDAY CLOSURE

Please be advised that the Township of Ramara Administration Building will be closed on Monday, October 11th, 2021 and will reopen on Tuesday, October 12th, 2021.
