SOUTH FOOTBRIDGE REPAIRS UPDATE

Tim Collingwood and Brian Wood from Tatham Engineering provided an update on the configuration and condition, repairs and cost estimate of repairs to the South Footbridge. Based on the report, the Lagoon City Parkways and Waterways Commission approved for Tatham Engineering to engage the services of Galcon Marine Ltd. to complete the necessary repairs of the South Footbridge. Repairs are expected to commence in Fall of 2022, weather permitting, as outlined by the consulting engineers and contractor.

RAMARA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE REQUEST

The Commission approved for the Chamber of Commerce to use the south private beach for the Beach Volleyball Tournament on September 3, 2022, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. upon receipt of liability insurance.

2022 DREDGING

Due to changes in regulations with fill material, the Director of Infrastructure advised the Commission to complete more dredging projects this year to avoid significant increases in upcoming years. The Commission approved increasing the 2022 dredging budget to $350,000.

WEED HARVESTING BACKHOE RENTAL AND CERTIFIED HAULER

The Commission approved for staff to engage in the services of Battlefield Cat Rental Store for the rental of a backhoe for the estimated total of $13,492.20 including HST and Robinson Haulage for a quoted price of $395.50 per bin, including tax to haul away.

WEED HARVESTING

Weed harvesting will start next month! Our infrastructure department will be busy cutting weeds and removing excessive vegetation. To ensure that services are done efficiently, the infrastructure department will monitor the growth of weeds in the canal and will ensure that the weed harvester is scheduled appropriately to the various areas of the canal.
